U.S. VISAS:

We partner with U.S. government colleagues to ensure that the United States continues to be the number one destination for international visitors. We remain on track to achieve President Obama's goal of attracting 100 million international visitors to the United States by 2021.

TOURISM AND TRAVEL TO THE UNITED STATES:

Consular officers strengthen our economy through proper adjudication of nonimmigrant visa applications of foreign citizens seeking to come to the United States to visit, study, work, and travel.

- 75 million international visitors traveled to the United States in CY 2014.
- Tourists and business travelers from the top 10 countries for visitors and top 10 countries for spending in the United States are now eligible for 10-year visas and/or visa-free travel.
- Visa applications in China are up 58 percent (compared to the same period in 2014) since the visa reciprocity for China extended to 10 years in November 2014,

TOURISM'S IMPACT ON THE ECONOMY AND TRADE:

- 2.6 percent of GDP (2014)
- International visitors contributed $220.6 billion to the U.S. economy (CY 2014)
- International students contributed $29 billion to the U.S. economy (CY 2014)
- Real spending on tourism increased 2.5 percent (2014)
- 7.8 million U.S. jobs supported by tourism (2013)
- 9 percent of all U.S. exports are related to Travel and Tourism (2014)

NONIMMIGRANT VISAS (NIVs)

- 11.7 million NIV applications adjudicated
- 9.9 million NIVs issued
- 607,275 student visas issued
- 331,068 exchange visitor visas issued
- 96 percent of applicants obtain a visa appointment within three weeks

UNITE FAMILIES AND GROW THE ECONOMY:

We reunite families and stimulate job growth through issuance of family-based and employment-based immigrant visas.

IMMIGRANT VISAS (IVs)

- 467,370 IVs issued

FOCUSING ON THE PEOPLE, NOT THE PAPER: New pilot program using an all-electronic visa application process.
